Thank You to our Holiday Heroes!

It takes a community of volunteers and donors to make our Holiday Meal Assistance and Santa's Workshop a reality. We are grateful for every toy, every gift card, every hour donated. Special thanks to our Holiday Super Heroes Kirby Perkins Construction, Wetstone Design and Millwork, Nicholas and Shelley Schorsch and Family, and St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Portsmouth, Rhode Island for their incredible generosity and major support for these important programs. We are so thankful to everyone who gives to the MLK as part of their holiday traditions.

Our Impact in 2024, Because of You

MLK staff and volunteers came together to speak about how YOU helped us serve over 8,000 people in 2024. Check out the video below to see all the great things we were able to accomplish together.

Help Make Our Community Stronger

The MLK provides 25 programs for Newport County, some of which are specifically catered to providing hunger relief. With your help, we can continue providing meals through with our food pantry, the Mobile Food Pantry, our breakfast program, our lunch program, holiday help and more.

Client Testimonial

I just recently became unemployed and have been utilizing the food pantry to feed my family. It's a great help while struggling to pay rent, car insurance and going to the laundromat with limited income to live withing your means. Your support is keeping me from going hungry or homeless. Thank you.
